

ENVIRONMENTAL AND SAFETY REGULATIONS

INDUSTRY RECOGNIZED • ONLINE
SHORT-TERM CERTIFICATE

The modern regulatory business environment creates the need for employees to be knowledgeable in both OSHA and environmental regulation.

CAREER opportunities

- Occupational Safety and Health Specialist
- Safety Consultant
- Coordinator of Loss Control
- Safety & Environmental Manager
- Risk Control Manager
- Environmental Lead
- Safety Director
- Corporate Safety Director
- Safety Compliance Officer
- Safety & Training Specialist

NATIONAL ENERGY CENTER OF EXCELLENCE

HANDS-ON LEARNING. WORKFORCE READY.

Level up your career by earning an additional high-demand skill set with a focus on regulatory issues in the energy industry.

The 18-credit Certificate in Environmental and Safety Regulations is designed to provide working industry personnel with the knowledge necessary to function in employee roles that involve safety and environmental oversight. Upon completion, learners will be able to identify, evaluate and solve potential problems, including workplace safety, government regulations, public health policies, and federal and state laws.

Prescribed Program Requirements

ENRT 105	Safety, Health and Environment	3 credits
BIOL 124	Environmental Science	3 credits
*ENRG 320	Fundamentals of Workforce Safety	3 credits
*ENRG 302	Ethical Issues in the Energy Industry	3 credits
*ENRG 310	Energy Production and the Environment	3 credits
*ENRG 330	Government Regulations in the Energy Industry	3 credits

Courses lead directly into a pathway to the Bachelor of Applied Science in Energy Management.*

Continue your education with a Bachelor of Applied Science in Energy Management. This program was developed in response to the nation's ever-increasing demand for energy and the growing need for highly trained energy workers who seek advancement in their careers. This degree builds on energy related foundations developed in previously completed energy education programs and includes general education classes, management courses and Energy Management courses.

STRONG JOB MARKET

100% ONLINE

STACKABLE CERTIFICATES

bismarckstate.edu/energy