BISMARCK | North Dakota's
STATE COLLEGE | Polytechnic Institution

Among the highest needs in North Dakota and national communities is the need for Title I Paraprofessionals and licensed teachers. The need for these educators exceeds the need for healthcare professionals in many states.

CAREER opportunities

- Title I Paraprofessional
- Teacher's Aid
- Teacher's Assistant
- Title I Reading Assistant
- Classroom Teacher*

*With completion of B.S.Ed. At partnering institution and passing licensing exams; completion of the BAS alone will not lead to full teaching licensure.

HANDS-ON LEARNING WORKFORCE READY.

Earn your degree—and your credentials—while preparing to lead in the classroom.

With Bismarck State College's Bachelor of Applied Science in Foundations of Teaching, you'll earn the federal Title I Paraprofessional Certificate of Completion from the state and the North Dakota Substitute Teaching License. You'll also have the option to co-enroll in a licensure program at one of our partner institutions, allowing you to complete two bachelor's degrees and work toward full teaching licensure in North Dakota.

This program is built to strengthen your confidence, tenacity, and classroom readiness, making you one of the best-prepared educators or paraprofessionals in the state.
