HANDS-ON LEARNING. WORKFORCE READY.

Unlock a successful future teaching business with a degree in Business Education from Bismarck State College.

In this program, you'll gain in-depth knowledge of business principles and effective teaching strategies, preparing you to inspire and guide future business leaders. This role will allow you to shape the next generation of entrepreneurs and innovators, equipping them with real-world skills and insights.

Your coursework at BSC will include accounting, word processing, business communications, spreadsheet and database applications, and Education and Pre-Professional Experience classes.

PREPARATION AND REQUIREMENTS

If you are a high school student aspiring to become a business teacher, you should take courses related to business education and computer technology and applications. Additionally, classes in speech and writing can be beneficial in this field.

The Business Education program at BSC provides the first two years of study toward a bachelor's degree, and the curriculum is designed for teaching business education in high school. Should you choose to teach business in a college setting, you will need to pursue a master's degree. By completing the program successfully, you will earn an Associate in Science degree.
