Institutional Commitment Policy A

Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Disability and Reasonable Accommodation

BSC affirms and recognizes its commitment to nondiscrimination on the basis of disability and its intention to comply with all laws prohibiting such discrimination including Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008.

1. In order to assure nondiscrimination on the basis of disability, BSC will provide appropriate and reasonable accommodation, as defined by these laws, for students with disabilities.
2. All BSC administrators, faculty, staff and students have a responsibility to adhere to the philosophy of equal access and opportunity which is the basis for this nondiscrimination commitment.
3. An individual may be required to provide relevant, written documentation regarding their disability in order to establish that he/she is a person with a disability and is entitled to protection from discrimination under the law.
