

BSC Code of Conduct for Financial Aid Professionals

Bismarck State College financial aid employees are expected to always maintain exemplary standards of professional conduct in all aspects of carrying out his or her responsibilities. Specifically including all dealings with any entities involved in any manner in student financial aid, regardless of whether such entities are involved in a government sponsored, subsidized, or regulated activity. In doing so, BSC financial aid employees should:

Refrain from taking any action for his or her personal benefit.

Refrain from taking any action he or she believes is contrary to law, regulation, or the best interests of the student and parents him or her serves.

Ensure that the information he or she provides is accurate, unbiased, and does not reflect any preference arising from actual or potential personal gain.

Be objective in making decisions and advising his or her institution regarding relationships with any entity involved in any aspect of student financial aid.

Refrain from soliciting or accepting anything of other than nominal value from any entity involved in the making, holding, consolidating or processing of any student loans, including anything of value (including reimbursement of expenses) for serving on an advisory body or as part of a training of a sponsored by any such entity.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Scott Lingen'.

Scott Lingen

Bismarck State College Financial Aid Director

Adopted 12/01/2007