

CampusConnection Helpsheet Financial Obligation Agreement

The Financial Obligation Agreement (FOA) is an understanding of the legal obligation, of the student, to pay charges assessed to his/her student account. The financial obligation should be read in full to understand what is being agreed to and will be held accountable.

If the FOA is declined, it will prevent class registration for that semester.

1. Access CampusConnection.

Financial Obligation Agreement

NORTH DAKOTA UNIVERSITY SYSTEM
ACCESS. INNOVATION. EXCELLENCE.

Please read the following information carefully:

* By registering for courses at an institution (or institutions) within the North Dakota University System (Bismarck State College, Dakota College at Bottineau, Dickinson State University, Lake Region State College, Mayville State University, Minot State University, North Dakota State College of Science, North Dakota State University, University of North Dakota, Valley City State University, Williston State College):

* I understand that I am incurring a legal obligation to pay all charges assessed to my Campus Connection account by the due date, including, but not limited to, tuition and fees, housing charges, and late payment fees.

* I accept full financial responsibility for each registered course, including those I may add after this initial registration for the term and understand that I am personally responsible for payment of all sums when due regardless of my eligibility for financial aid or other financial assistance.

* I understand that I must sign this agreement only upon initial enrollment each term and that adding additional courses for the same term may increase my financial obligation. I assume full responsibility for any additional charges and will check my Campus Connection account frequently to ensure that I am aware of any additional charges.
