

AWS (American Welding Society) Foundation, Inc

The AWS Foundation is dedicated to meeting the needs for education and research in the field of welding and related joining technologies.

The District Scholarship is available to students enrolled in a welding-related educational or training program.

AWS offers a number of programs. Descriptions of all programs offered may be downloaded from <https://scholarship.aws.org/applications/>

If you have questions, or would like additional information, please feel free to contact 800-443-9353, extension 250, or email to nprado-pulido@aws.org.